
Spotlight Class: 1967

The Class of '67 moved from the old school to the new school in our freshman year. John Hollander was our superintendent and Donald Holmes our principal. The faculty was Dorothy Apking, Janet Badgero, Robert Barry, Donald Butler, Sally Butler, Lowell Fleury, James Hall, Harriett Lyon, Mildred Miller, Ruth Nelson, Leslie Nixon, Michele Nixon, Craig Otis, Karan Pregitzer, Charlie Schaar, George Scott and Arnold Trafelet.

The teachers were helpful when we needed it. Our classmates would help each other out when it came to school work. I would like to thank the teachers for the education we received.

I also remember the peanut butter cookies the cooks would make. Our yearbook was dedicated to Karan Pregitzer.

Our class president was Clark Chapman, secretary-Kathy Harman, and treasurer-Kathy Mason. The exchange student was Hans Nielson from Denmark.

There were 79 students in our graduation class. Our class was very close, and we

Alum of the Year

The process of choosing 2009's Alum of the Year is underway. At the January meeting it was decided that a better method of nomination is needed in the future. In some cases the board received just a name, in others a name and a very short testimonial, and in still others, lots of information as to why a person should be Yearbooks, Anyone?

If you've been to the Alumni Tent on the Fourth of July, you know that pictures and yearbooks are popular items. People gather around them, pointing out friends, relatives, and themselves with chuckles and groans of something like, "Did I really wear that?" We're limited in which yearbooks we have, so we're asking: does anyone have a yearbook to donate to OASAA or loan for the day of the Fourth?

have a very good turnout for reunions. Best of luck to everyone in the year 2009.

chosen. The plan for 2010 is to provide a form so that nominations will be uniform. From that, a slate of candidates will be produced and included in the newsletter. Members will then be able to vote for Alum of the Year in a fair and balanced manner. Look for the form in the November newsletter.

Storage space is a problem, but we recognize the need for an archive, so space will be found. Below are the years we now have; if you can loan or give other years to the project, it will be appreciated. Just stop by the tent and watch the smiles!
